Re: Runza® Sandwich in the Roll Call Taste of America Final Four

LINCOLN –

Roll Call, a Capitol Hill government & political newspaper, is sponsoring a bracket-style contest called Taste of America. The contest features 64 foods from around the country organized by region. Over the last four weeks, the Runza® Sandwich has triumphed over the Kansas Steak, Chicago Hot Dog, Minnesota Corn Dogs and most recently, the Pork Tenderloin from Indiana.

Voting to determine the winner from the four finalists began this morning at 9am (Eastern) and continues through 5pm (Eastern) on Friday, June 17th. The winner will be announced at a special reception on June 21st at We, the Pizza in Washington, DC. All four finalists will be featured at the reception.

Visit www.rollcalltasteofamerica.com to vote. Multiple votes can be cast per person.

“Over the last four weeks, the Runza® Sandwich has received tens of thousands of votes from our loyal fans and customers. We are thankful and honored to be included with the best products offered across the country and look forward to a very strong finish,” stated Donald Everett, Jr., President of Runza® National.

The contest is sponsored by the National Beer Wholesalers Association, National Restaurant Association, National Farmers Union, and National Pork Producers Council.

Runza® Restaurants – famous for the Runza® Sandwich with its delicious blend of ground beef, cabbage, onions and secret spices baked inside homemade bread; made-to-order hamburgers; and homemade onion rings – operates and franchises 82 restaurants in Nebraska (76), Colorado (2), Iowa (2) and Kansas (2).
